About

Through my 8 years' experience in JavaScript developing, web developing, WEB Engineer and Start-up projects, I have managed to reach the heart of designing Net application, as a result I become more selective in using the best front end and back end software that match with the project requirements and accordingly time and effort would be saved and the project cost would be minimise especially when you are working with a professional developer who does not risk the work quality.

My services include JavaScript developing, developing net application, upgrading project features and providing consultant services.

Skills: HTML5, CSS, Javascript FrontEnd/BackEnd, PHP, MySQL Administration.

Attention to details to guarantee the client satisfactory

Fast learner due to my passion for knowledge that is related to web developing.

Web development: React + Redux, Angular 1/2, ExpressJs, Ionic 1/2

Technical CTO at reservble.com. I own the technical strategy, system architecture, and end-to-end product delivery across frontend, backend, and core platform services. I design and evolve APIs, integrations, and the payments domain, ensuring platform reliability, performance, and scalability.

My stack includes React/Redux, Node.js/Express, PostgreSQL, Redis, REST APIs, Sequelize, Google Actions, and Payments. I focus on engineering and operational excellence: clean standards and reviews, observability and incident response, database and caching optimization, secure releases, and production stability. I partner closely with product and business stakeholders, shape the technical roadmap, and drive key architectural decisions.

Workflow with UI: React + Redux under ES6. Create Actions, Reducers for components which worked with API. In a process I am use library like webpack to split our codebase into multiple bundles, lodash and moment for components, stylus for template, axios it's HTTP client in Actions.

Workflow with API: Based on Express.js with Sequelize library for ORM which work with PostgreSQL in production and SQLite for DEV. Passport we use for auth. On Mocha we are write tests and connect-roles library for roles.

Workflow with AdminPanel: CPanel based on BlurAdmin seed with AngularJs, Gulp for build system.
